

Translate the following sentences into Spanish using the ir +a+ infinitive construction.

1. I'm going to sing.

_____

2. You all are going to need the books.

_____

3. They are going to pay attention.

_____

4. Margarita is going to look at the chalkboard.

_____

5. Who is going to take notes?

_____

6. Enrique and Jose are going to get good grades.

_____

7. Zack and I are going to listen to the teacher (male).

_____

8. I'm going to arrive at six on the dot.

_____

9. You are going to enter the door behind the building.

_____

10. She is going to give a test on Tuesday.

_____

11. We are going to dance at the party.

_____

12. The teachers are going to teach history today.

_____

13. You are not going to get bad grades.

_____

14. You all are going to go to school at 7:00 AM.

_____

15. We are going to eat dinner at 6:30 PM.

_____